In this practice centre candidates should pass the healt and brekfred candidates catch the heals. In puniting and drop kicking properly dropping the healt to the foot is important. who succeeds Fred Paly of Yale as coach, has a difficult task before him in turning out a winning team.

A year ago the Purple eleven passed through a disastrous season. Few veterans will be available, and last year's freshman team and second string men of last fall do not include any players of great promise.

Cochrane, Redfield, Hawkins and Keiser are some of the substitutes available. Sawyer, who broke his nose early last fall and was out for the season, is likely to prove a valuable man on the line this year. Coach Brook's chief problem will be to develop a backfield, where the Purple was especially weak a year ago. If M. Wright is eligible, he will probably pay fullback, but "dark horses" must be relied on for the two halves and the score of others were clinging to it, but most aggressive leaders Yale has ever love for the week closed of the vessel when she made her last shock and he has as his assistants of the two stood on one of the upper decks and like is the wistord on one of the upper decks and like is the substitutes available. The backfield practically needs rebuilding, as ex-Capt. Dave Punn and Alex Yule, who have played four years, leave holes to be filled. very brilliant, being lightning fast in every department of the game. Williams has one peculiarity in his play that finds its prototype in the Ger-man army war tactics—he believes that the best defence is to attack. He liter-ally does not know any defence, in the ordinary sense of the word, and no posi-tion that he can be forced into prevents him from trying to bring off one of his wonderful passing shots.
